Bondsmen of Joseph I. Altschul Surrender Him to the Authorities to Await the Action of the Grand Jury.

Joseph I. Altschul of Little Rock, Ark. arrested there several weeks age on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, the complaint being made against him by A. A. Anl, the local cleak merchant, is again a prisoner at the city jail, where he is being held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Altechul was brought to St. Louis several weeks ago, but secured his release on bond, pending the hearing of the charge against him. He allowed his bond to be forfeited, having returned to Arkansas after his release. He failed to appear at the trial.

Last Monday Altschul returned to St. Louis, he says, to look into the matter. He stated he was to be notified when his case was set for trial, but, owing to the fact that he was not summoned, he says, his bond was forfeited. It was then, he declares, that he learned of the forfeiture and returned here to "square things."

When the bondsmen learned of Altchul's presence in the city, they surrenered him to the authorities and he was cked up in the city jail, to await the action of the Grand Jury, which, it is stated, will dispose of his care to-day.

Upon the bond being forfelied, the case against Altschul, as is the custom in this State, passed to the Circuit Court, out of the jurisdiction of the City Court. The charge was then aired in the Grand Jury-room.

Frosecuting Attorney A. N. Seger stated last night that he had made a thorough laventigation, and that the reports from Arkansas regarding Attachul's doings there were not very favorable.

News reached St. Louis yesterday to the effect that Altschul's wife was critically ill at Little Rock. His family is prominent in social circles in the Arkansas capital.

A. A. Azil, who made the charge against Altschul, was his bondsman, having been induced, upon a promise that Attschul would return here for trial, to sign his bond and permit him to return to Little Rock.

Upon his failure to return for stal.

Bock.

Upon his failure to return for trial, Mr. Aai told him to return to St. Louis and surrender him to the authorities.

Altachal is one of the best-known life insurance men in Arkansas, and has traveled in that State for years as an insurance agent. He is a personal triend of Governor Jeff Dayls of that State, who honored the requisition papers there when presented for Altachal's return to St. Louis, because, he said, he felt bound as an official to do so.

RAILROADS

Estimated That 200,000 Persons Will Cross From This Side in 1905 - Heaviest Travel in Six

Judging from the figures up to date, the totals of the eastbound ocean traffic from New York to British and Continental ports this summer will surpass by many thousands all preceding records. Already the total for 1905 is nearing the half mark of the total of 19%, and the annual rush to Europe has only begun. The figures up to two weeks ago had passed the 60,000 mark. It can be eafely said that the total now is at least $0,000. The present prokings will increase this by 30,000 by the middle of July. Add to this the figures for August and September and the rest of the year, and it will be easily seen that 196 will go beyond the 200,000

To most the summer traffic from Amer-To meet the summer traffic from America to Europe the various transatiantic lines affected will have increased their fleets by the next rush season. The Cunard Line will have two additional boats, which, in point of speed and lux-urious appointments, are expected to eclipse any vessels affect. The Hamburg-American Line will have commissioned the magnificent vessels America and Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, while the French Line will have added to her fleet what is expected to be the fastent vessel that ever salled under the tricolor—La Provence—now nearing completion at St. Nazaire.

Nazaire.

For the past six years the New York transatiantic passenger trade has been increasing steadily. In only one year of the six have the figures fallen behind the preceding year. In that case the preceding year happened to be 199. That was the year of the Paris Exposition. The totals for the six years are:

In considering the increase in the traffic out of New York it must be remembered that the transatiantic trude of Boston has been increasing, too. The White Star Line now operates a service to that portlone of its vessels in its Boston-Laverpool trade being the Arabic, a new vessel, until recently in the New York fleet. The Dominion and Cunard lines are also operating greatly improved services to Boston. Philadelphia, Baltimore and New Orleans are also passenger terminais, and all of these cities, including Boston, are now enjoying a trade that only a few years ago was practically monopolised by New York.

SALE OF TERMINAL TRANSFER. Rock Island and Lake Shere Sald to Have Control of Chicago Belt Line. Chicago, Ill., June 21.—Although official enfirmation is lacking, it is reliably stated that control of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company has been esured by the lake Shore and Rock Island interests. Formal announcement of the completion of this deal probably will be made in the near future by J. P. Morgan & Co. The highest officials of both the Lake Shore and Rock Island companies are now in New York, and it is stated that Walter L. Jones and J. F. Corbin of Warrensburg Indicted in Connection With Attempt to Bribe Jurors in Hyatt Murder Trial.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Warrensburg, Me, June 30.-The John on County Grand Jury made a partial report to-day, returning four indictments.

J. F. Corbin, a local transfer man, is ndicted on the charge of attempting to bribe E. E. Weir, one of the jurors in the Hyatt murder trial. Three indictments were found against Walter L. Jones, a well-to-do stock buyer living south of this city. One count charges Jones with attempting to bribe C. D. Wallace, and another with attempting to bribe A. C. Campbell, both members of the Hyatt jury. The third charges him of the Hyatt jury. The third charges him with attempting to influence Juror John J. Davis.

J. Davis.

Jurors Wallace, Campbell, Ditty, Davis and Johnson are the prosecuting witnesses who teatified against Jones before the Grand Jury.

Jones's bond was placed at $2,500 on the three counts, which he gave, and waived a hearing until the next term of the Criminal Court. Corbin's bond was fixed at $500, in default of which he is now in the county jail.

The community is surprised at the charges against Jones owing to his connection and high standing in the county.

nection and high standing in the county. He is one of the best known horse and mule dealers in the State, and he gained an enviable reputation in that line at the World's Fair by carrying off more than $2.000 in prize money for the best spans of mules. of mules.

At the request of the Grand Jury it was excused from its sittings until July 24, when the investigation will be resumed.

It is reported that many important witnesses are absent, and that the Grand Jury will await their return before going into the matter further. Rumor has it that others prominent in the community will come under the ban before the investigation is closed.
